Class 01

Dry White, Riesling (<7g/l R.S) - 2022 Vintage

Judges: Andrew Quin, Erin Larkin, Michael Downer, Kelly Wellington, Steve Baraglia, Stuart Pigott, Janelle Badrice, Jarrad Steele, Jacinta Jenkins, Mick Sandercocok, Gonzalo Sanchez, Alexandra Wardlaw

Comments: Great vintage with vibrant wines. Best examples had great balance, drive and fruit purity. Hard phenolics, overripe fruit and RS out of step with the wine were all seen and scored in accordance. Some wines perfect for the here and now, and some wines that are truly going places. What a joy that was. 2022 is clearly an abundant year of precision, focus, and acid. The best wines were exceptional, and exciting, and age-worthy. Some concerns with premature development and some ferment issues, but these were not in the majority. Go Clare! It was very enjoyable experience to judge a great Clare vintage with one of the world's leading Riesling authorities.

Dry White, other than Riesling, oaked or non oaked (<7g/l R.S) - 2022 Vintage

Judges: Andrew Quin, Steve Baraglia, Stuart Pigott, Janelle Badrice, Jarrad Steele, Jacinta Jenkins

Comments: Best wines had good texture and acid balance. Great to see alternate varieties suited the climate really starting to shine. Weaker wines looked simple and in some cases balance was lacking.

Class 06

Shiraz - 2022/2021 Vintage

Judges: Erin Larkin, Michael Downer, Kelly Wellington, Mick Sandercock, Gonzalo Sanchez, Alexandra Wardlaw

Comments: A very young set of wines, but one that showed an array of buoyant fruit, from a beautiful season. Some wines were afflicted with too much oak, and others showed their commercial side, some surprisingly early development, but overall, it was a pleasure to judge, and we look forward to seeing these wines evolve! The best were delicious and possessed of good complexity in a range of styles.

Cabernet Sauvignon - 2022/2021 Vintage

Judges: Erin Larkin, Michael Downer, Kelly Wellington, Mick Sandercock, Gonzalo Sanchez, Alexandra Wardlaw

Comments: The kind gentle year shows through in these wines. The fruit in the best wines was supple, pure, buoyant and fresh. The usual ails were found amongst some of the wines: over-enthusiastic application of oak, and late picking. Otherwise -Clare Cabernet: good (leaf and mint - we were into it!)

Judges: Andrew Quin, Erin Larkin, Michael Downer, Kelly Wellington, Steve Baraglia, Stuart Pigott, Janelle Badrice, Jarrad Steele, Jacinta Jenkins, Mick Sandercock, Gonzalo Sanchez, Alexandra Wardlaw

Comments: An at times challenging class, with plenty of reduction, exuberant oak and chewy tannin called out as distractions from fruit. HOWEVER - the best wine was a superstar and delighted judges from both panels. Best wine combined purity of fruit with outstanding tannin drive.

Class 13

Blended red wine, other than eligible for classes 10,11,12 - 2020 Vintage

Judges: Erin Larkin, Michael Downer, Kelly Wellington, Mick Sandercock, Gonzalo Sanchez, Alexandra Wardlaw

Comments: A pretty diverse group of wines here. As it should be. There was some premature development, varietal definition was difficult to determine in some, but overall a class where producers are unafraid to express tannin. Which is a good thing.

Class 14

Dry White, Riesling (<7g/l R.S) - 2021 Vintage

Judges: Erin Larkin, Michael Downer, Kelly Wellington, Mick Sandercock, Gonzalo Sanchez, Alexandra Wardlaw

Comments: Super strong class. Winner: Clare. 5 golds from 15 wines, and a bevy of beautiful wines otherwise. Clare had a great 2021 vintage, and that was evident in the glasses – purity, line, restraint and focus in most of the wines. There were a few wines showing early development and some ferment issues. But otherwise, well done. A joy.

Judges: Andrew Quin, Erin Larkin, Michael Downer, Kelly Wellington, Steve Baraglia, Stuart Pigott, Janelle Badrice, Jarrad Steele, Jacinta Jenkins, Mick Sandercoc, Gonzalo Sanchez, Alexandra Wardlaw

Comments: As expected a class of wonderful wines
 What an astounding bracket. If ever there was a showcase for the age-ability of Clare Riesling - this is it. Judges were expecting a high-class bracket, but were stunned at the amount of wines that got golds and silvers. A few prematurely developed wines, and some with some issues, but otherwise, a triumphant class. Thank you for submitting these wines!

Dry White, other than Riesling, oaked and non oaked (<7g/l R.S) - 2021 Vintage or older

Judges: Erin Larkin, Michael Downer, Kelly Wellington, Mick Sandercock, Gonzalo Sanchez, Alexandra Wardlaw

Comments: Some really delicious wines here. The best was complex, detailed, fresh and beautiful. The wines that missed out on a medal were well made and pleasant, but just lacked the precision and focus of a bronze. Fun class!

Class 17

Shiraz - 2019 Vintage or older

Judges: Erin Larkin, Michael Downer, Kelly Wellington, Mick Sandercock, Gonzalo Sanchez, Alexandra Wardlaw

Comments: A beautiful collection of diverse wines spanning 2009 - 2019. There were some cleanliness issues with some wines which was disappointing. Wines in pristine condition felt hard to find in the older age bracket, however there was joy to be found in all areas. Good generation of discussion.

Other single varietals; e.g. Merlot, Malbec, Tempranillo, Grenache - 2019 Vintage or older

Judges: Andrew Quin, Michael Downer, Kelly Wellington, Janelle Badrice, Jarrad Steele, Jacinta Jenkins

Comments: many wines lacking freshness and balance. More attention needed in harvest date and wine making to retain freshness and build complexity. A Nero that was fresh and appealing was the choice drink of the bracket.

Class 20

Blended red wine, other than eligible for classes 17, 18, 19 - 2019 Vintage or older

Judges: Erin Larkin, Steve Baraglia, Stuart Pigott, Mick Sandercock, Gonzalo Sanchez, Alexandra Wardlaw

Comments: This was an interesting bracket. Many wines lacked fruit density and drive in the mouth, although there were some beautiful drinking wines on the table. On the whole, the judges wanted to like the class, but had some issues getting over the intensity and balance of the wines. Oak really showed through in some of those.
